Field School Will Focus on the Following Areas:
Survey, Remote Sensing, Excavation, and Laboratory work. Work will be done on late pre-historic and historic sites.

Contact and Application Information:
Application and more information can be found on the EWU anthropology website:
http://www.ewu.edu/csbssw/programs/anthropology/archaeological-field-school.xml

Instructor:
Dr. John T Dorwin

Email:
jdorwin@ewu.edu

Credit
10-Quarter hours

Cost
$2,457.30 Undergraduate
$3,445 Graduate

Limited to 12 Students

Housing and Dining:
Gender-divided bunking accommodations are provided with gender-divided toilets and showers. There are limited cooking facilities available with a few utensils. No meals will be provided. Restaurants and grocery stores are 7-10 miles regular transportation provided to them.

Location:
Kalispel Indian Reservation and Tribal Lands near Usk, Washington.